A New Twist on the Annual Chair-ity Auction ... with a Looking Glass

Many thanks to the Best Seat in the House committee for making the Gulfport Senior Foundation the beneficiary of their next Best Seat in the House, With a Looking Glass, auction! It will be held on Saturday, March 12, 2022, from 5-7 p.m. at The Tiki Bar & Grill on Shore Blvd. DJ DeLaran Withers will start the night at 5 pm. Auctioneer Tracy Jamerson takes over at 6 pm with the live auction.

This year the committee has added an interesting twist! For the past year, they have been rounding up gently used chairs, bar stools, tables and mirrors (hence the With a Looking Glass!) representing varied genre and periods. The artists selected are working on their pieces until mid-February.

The variety of pieces will allow bidders and buyers to find more options for their space and their taste! Many thanks to this year's artists: Eric Folsom, Diane Kim Lowe, Alice Pickett & Bob Lewis, Kelli La, Janet Folsom, Kit Perusich, Jila Davoodi, Deb Kent, Curt McCue, Tracy McCue, Shara Bunis, Jamie Edwards, and Sally Dumas.

Congratulations Jennifer Terrana & Rachel Cataldo!

Two members of our Foundation family were honored recently at the 2022 Delivered with Heart Awards Banquet, presented by Griswold Home Care Pinellas. Since 2016, this special event has celebrated the individuals in our community who strive to make life better for area elders.

Past Foundation President Jennifer Terrana received the award for Leadership Delivered with Heart. An elder law attorney in St Petersburg, Jennifer joined the Board in 2017 and served as Foundation President from 2018 to 2021. She remains on the Board as a member of the events committee.

Rachel Cataldo, Gulfport Multipurpose Senior Center Supervisor, was honored for Resiliency Delivered with Heart. This award is for a business or senior community that has come up with innovative ways to keep the community connected during the pandemic. When COVID forced the Senior Center doors to close, Rachel led her staff to action making many activities available online via ZOOM and YouTube.

Celebration of Life for Jerryanne Hindman Saturday, March 12, 3-6 pm Peninsula Inn Covered Patio

She was known all over Gulfport as bubbly, sassy, lively and vibrant. Jerryanne Hindman was a fixture at the Gulfport Multipurpose Senior Center for more than 20 years, as a volunteer, as office manager for the Senior Center Foundation and as a Foundation board member.

Jerryanne retired from the Foundation in January 2021 and passed away December 29 after a series of health issues throughout that year. Her boundless energy was always present behind many of the Foundation's popular fundraising events including the Gulfport Health & Wellness Expo coming up on March 19, 2022.

Sip, Chat & Paint is Back April 4

A Benefit for the Gulfport Senior Center Foundation

The next Sip, Chat & Paint fun-raiser will bring back our first painting – a bold Florida sunset. Interest in this fun-raiser is growing so fast that we've arranged to add six more seats for the next class Monday, April 4, 5:30-7 pm. This is a great way to create a one-of-a-kind gift for someone special or an original work of art you'll be proud to hang on your wall.

This event is held in the spacious dining hall at the Senior Center. Refreshments are included: Each guest will receive an individually wrapped charcuterie plate provided by Freedom Square and we'll be pouring from a selection of wines.

Now we have 24 seats available, but we suggest you sign up soon. In order to retain social distancing, we won't be able to increase the class size further, so please register soon. It's $30 to register online plus a small processing fee. You may also pay by cash or check at the Senior Center Foundation office.

All art supplies, including 16 x 20 canvas, will be provided. Plus you'll get step-by-step instructions from an experienced art instructor.
